An exceptional destination at the top of Mont Blanc
Chamonix

Look up, in the heart of the city, it is everywhere...

4810 m of rock, snow and ice: Mont Blanc is the highest peak in Europe.

Nestled at its feet, in Haute-Savoie, the town of Chamonix enjoys an exceptional natural setting. The birthplace of mountaineering, it can be visited year round.

In winter, the resort attracts both amateur and experienced skiers to the mountain's snow-covered slopes, which offer superb slopes for skiing. In summer, surrounded by greenery, it becomes the rallying point for hikers and outdoor sports enthusiasts.

You will love Chamonix!

Climb Mont Blanc

The highest peak in the Alps at 4,810 meters, Mont Blanc extends its arms to everyone who love the mountains. Skiing, hiking or even photography enthusiasts will all find something to satisfy their passion by exploring its slopes or trails.

Admire the Mer de Glace glacier

Covering forty square kilometers and seven kilometers wide, the Mer de Glace is the largest glacier in France. Monumental, it is one of the most visited natural sites in the world.

To get there, board the famous little red cogwheel train. The train's mountainside route climbs through tunnels cut in the rock and some viaducts. On arrival, a breathtaking panorama awaits you: below you look out over the glacier, a true witness to the climate changes of our time!

Thrill in the Aiguille du Midi cable car

Culminating at 3,777 meters, the Aiguille du Midi cable car is the highest in Chamonix, offering a unique and dizzying panorama: Mont Blanc, glaciers and seracs are at your feet.

Here you can experience the "Pas dans le Vide": enter a 2x2m glass cage and find yourself immersed in nature over a 1000m drop under your feet, the feeling of diving into the valley!

Snowshoe hike

Discover breathtaking snow-covered landscapes in a novel way. Discover the winter flora and fauna and maybe you will have the opportunity to see animal tracks!

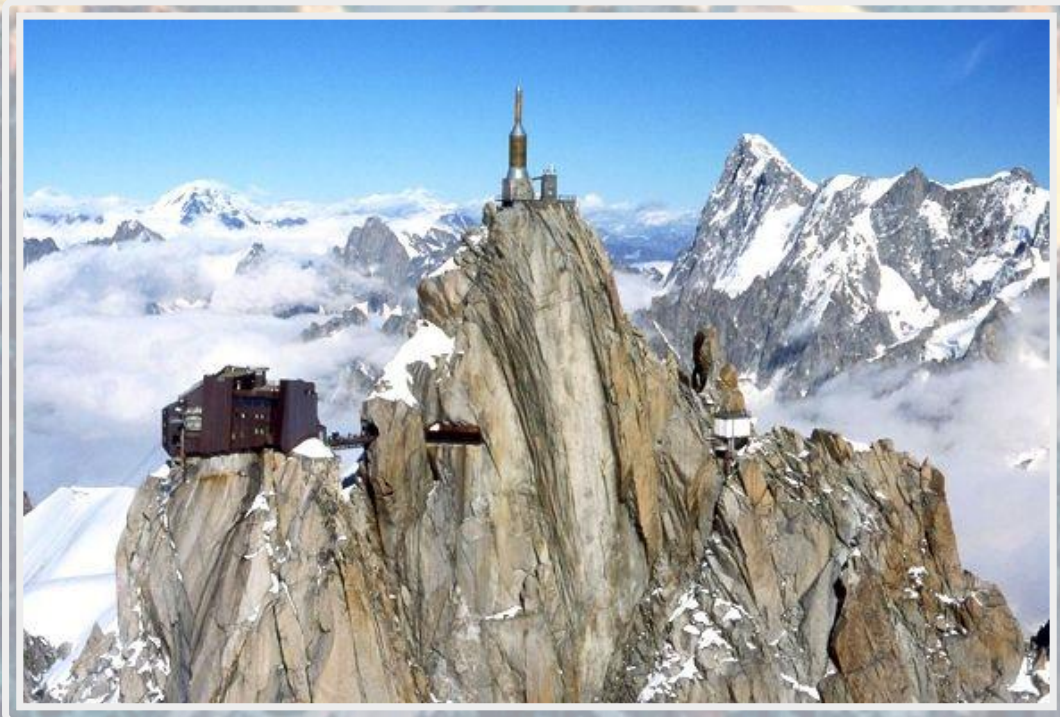

Running a trail

With the Mont Blanc marathon, the UTMB® or the Aiguilles Rouges trail, Chamonix is the favored meeting place for runners, providing superb cross-country trails in summer in a majestic setting.

Bite into a Tomme de Savoie

Staying in Chamonix is also an opportunity to taste Savoyard culinary specialties, especially when they are made with cheese.

Fondues, raclettes and tartiflettes are of course part of the game !

Well-being at the top of the Alps

Nestled in the middle of nature, the QC Terme spa is set in the majestic Mont Blanc and offers you the luxury of swimming surrounded by snow or mountain meadows.

An unexpected synthesis between hot and cold, water and earth: within its 3,000 square meters, you can enjoy more than 30 well-being activities for a multi-sensory journey, as well as an infinity pool that reflects in the water of the adjacent alpine lake, with a breathtaking view of the Bossons glacier.

Take part in the legendary après-ski of La Folie Douce

It's like the beautiful Gatsby throws an amazing party every day. It contains all the ingredients that have made the historic success of La Folie Douce: DJs, singers, dancers, performers and musicians. An energizing, unifying and totally irresistible mix.

Dinner at La Télécabine

A cable car is suspended above the entrance: the stage is set! A warm atmosphere, and a traditional and generous cuisine with a dose of innovation. It has earned a « Bib Gourmand » in the MICHELIN Guide.
